

Regulatory Alert – Argentina

ENACOM new Director has been appointed

Following the release of the Argentinean National Official Bulletin (Decreto 276/2016) on 2nd February 2016, it has been confirmed that a new Director has been appointed at the Authority, Ente Nacional de Comunicaciones (ENACOM).

ENACOM have confirmed to PCS that all applications currently under review are being reviewed as normal and applications previously on hold in the signatory stage are now expected to resume. Nevertheless, the timeframe for the release of Type Approval certificates remains unconfirmed.

Additionally as part of the migration process to ENACOM, the Regulator's website has now changed to <http://www.enacom.gob.ar>. This is expected to be fully functional in the next few days.

PCS is monitoring the situation closely and will provide further updates in due course.
